Pallottine Foundation of Buckhannon to offer free nonprofit workshops in October on grant writing, accounting

BUCKHANNON, W.Va. – The Pallottine Foundation of Buckhannon will offer two free workshops in October for nonprofit organizations in Barbour, Lewis, Randolph, Upshur and Webster counties.

The first, "Introduction to Grant Writing," will take place Wednesday, Oct. 12 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at The Event Center at Brushy Fork in Buckhannon. Alice Ruhnke, President of GrantStation, will give expert advice on how to write effective grant applications. Participants will receive a free, two-year membership to GrantStation.com, which includes grantmaker profiles, searchable databases of grantmakers, grantseeking tools and tutorials. Lunch will be provided. Please register by Oct. 5 online at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/introduction-to-grant-writing-tickets-395154928027>.

The Foundation will offer the workshop "Understanding Nonprofit Accounting" Wednesday, Oct. 26 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at The Event Center at Brushy Fork in Buckhannon. Representatives from Suttle & Stalnaker Certified Public Accountants will provide an expert overview and discussion of good accounting practices for nonprofit organizations, understanding financial statements, and the benefits of using QuickBooks. Lunch will be provided. Please register by Oct. 19 online at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/understanding-nonprofit-accounting-tickets-395393631997>.

For more information, call Sarah Campbell, health program officer, at 304-397-5955, ext. 107.

About the Pallottine Foundation of Buckhannon

The Pallottine Foundation of Buckhannon was established with proceeds from the sale of St. Joseph's Hospital, and continues the legacy established by the Pallottine Missionary Sisters of caring for the spiritual, emotional, and physical health of those in the region. The Foundation focuses its efforts on six primary areas: food insecurity, health & wellness, leadership development, spiritual & pastoral care, substance use disorder, and tobacco use prevention and cessation. Its service area includes Barbour, Lewis, Randolph, Upshur, and Webster counties.
